

2022 HIV Next Generation Conference

Theme: Implementation Science for HIV Prevention and Treatment to End the Epidemics.”

Friday, December 2, 2022, 9:00am – 12:15pm PT

Zoom Link: <https://uclahs.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJMqc-2vqzooHdxsOT0zSGe52UBkDvdH8z5a>

AGENDA

Moderator: Dr. Swendeman

- 9:00am Welcome and Opening Remarks (5 minutes)
- Dr. Shoptaw and Dr. Milburn
- 9:05am Announcements (5 minutes)
- Dr. Swendeman
- 9:10am Opening Plenary (35 minutes)
- Who Benefits from Global HIV Prevention Science? A Call for Researcher Accountability - Dr. Amaya Perez-Brumer
- 9:45am Oral Presentations Set 1-Breakout Rooms (30 minutes) + 5 minutes buffer
- Panel 1: Mental Health and HIV Prevention (3 presentations) – Dr. Bogart
 - A virtual platform to mitigate the effects of isolation among older people living with HIV: Lessons learned in usability with Discord
 - “I have moments where I am down, but it has made me resilient”: Mental Health Strengths Among Youth At-Risk for and Living with HIV
 - Sexual Health Promotion Methods and Decision-Making among Youth At-Risk for and Living with HIV in Los Angeles and New Orleans: A Qualitative, Choice-Based Analysis
 - Panel 2: HIV Prevention (3 presentations) – Dr. Uskup
 - Addressing PrEP/ PEP use disparities amongst marginalized communities by way of a peer-led collaborative initiative
 - Medical Student-Run Telehealth for HIV Testing and Counseling among Sexual Minority Men: Impact on Patient Experience and Implications for Student Education
 - Factors Associated with HIV Testing among Spanish and English Speaking Latinx Youth
- 10:20am Poster Sessions Video Introductions/Breakout Room Instructions (see poster list below)

- 10:40am Poster Session-Breakout rooms (20 minutes)
- 11:00am Break (5 minutes)
- 11:05am Oral Presentations Set 2 (20 minutes) + 5 minutes buffer
- Panel 1: Substance Use and HIV (2 presentations) – Dr. Gorbach
 - Factors Influencing Betel Nut Chewing Behavior in People Living with HIV in Myanmar
 - Substance Use And Associated Intimate Partner Violence Risk Among MSM In Los Angeles, California
 - Panel 2: Ending the HIV Epidemic Implementation Science Panel 1 (2 presentations) – Dr. Clark
 - The UCLA Rapid, Rigorous, Relevant (3R) Implementation Science Hub: Supporting EHE Initiatives
 - Addressing intersectional oppression in Asian Pacific Americans with HIV in Southern CA: An Implementation Science Framework
 - Implementing a Community-engaged Equity Approach to Identify Barriers and Facilitators to the PrEP Care Continuum in Long Beach, CA
- 11:30am Return back to main session (5 minutes)
- 11:35am Oral Presentations Set 3 (30 minutes) + 5 minutes buffer
- Panel 1: Policy Impact Panel
 - HIV and the Carceral State: Researching Effects on Health Outcomes
 - Panel 2: Ending the HIV Epidemic Implementation Science Panel 2 (4 presentations) – Dr. Swendeman
 - Implementation Strategies to Promote Equitable Dissemination of Long-Acting injectable PrEP to Black/Latino MSM and Transgender Women in Los Angeles.
 - Pharmacist delivered PrEP and PEP in three high priority EHE counties in CA (Los Angeles, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties): An overview
 - Haus of C.H.O.P (Choosing Healthy Options for Prevention/PrEP)
 - The incentives for prevention study (TIPS): Financially incentivizing strategies for HIV prevention in high-incidence populations in LA County
- 12:10pm Closing Remarks (5 minutes)

– Dr. Landovitz

12:15pm

Adjourn