Inside Out: Helping HIV Positive Women (and Men) Improve Their Self-Esteem

Facilitated by:

Shellye Jones, LCSW

LAFAN Clinical Supervisor

This is the fourth conference in the Breaking the Silence series specifically designed for providers who treat Black and Hispanic women at sexual risk for HIV. Breaking the Silence IV will focus on improving self-esteem. This will be an intensive, skills-based training. Providers will learn techniques to enhance clients' sense of self-esteem and self efficacy.

By the end of this training, participants will be able to:

- Recognize their own self-esteem transference and counter-transference issues
- Understand the relationship between self-esteem and adherence
- Utilize additional tools to use with the clients - self-esteem assessment activities and "self-esteem tool kit"
