

The Los Angeles County Commission on HIV and the UCLA Center for HIV Identification, Prevention, and Treatment Services invite you to attend

Surviving the Streets: Challenges and Opportunities Addressing Youth Homelessness

Norweeta Milburn, PhD

Department of Psychiatry & Biobehavioral Sciences
David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA

Thursday, April 14, 2016

9:30am to 10:40am*

St. Anne's Maternity Home

Foundation Conference Room
155 N. Occidental Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90026

The presentation will focus on homeless young people in Los Angeles County, including transition age youth. Information will be provided on the prevalence of youth homelessness in the County, the prevalence of HIV/AIDS among homeless youth in the County, and interventions that have been implemented to address youth homelessness and prevent HIV/AIDS in this population. The presentation will be followed by a panel discussion moderated by Thomas Davis. Panelists will include Leticia Nichols, Daley Barnwell, and Gerson Avelino.

About the Presenter

Dr. Milburn is a Professor-in-Residence in the Department of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences at the UCLA Semel Institute Center for Community Health and Director of Research and Evaluation at the Nathanson Family Resilience Center. Her research interests include homelessness, substance abuse, mental health and family-based behavioral interventions. She has examined paths into and out of homelessness, as well as the risk for HIV among homeless youth in the U.S. and Australia. She has designed and implemented a behavioral intervention for homeless adolescents at risk for HIV and their families.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY
COMMISSION ON HIV

*as part of the Commission on HIV meeting agenda. No registration required.