

REACH LA

Non-Clinical CBO Telehealth PrEP Programing

FU*K AVERAGE,
BE LEGENDARY.

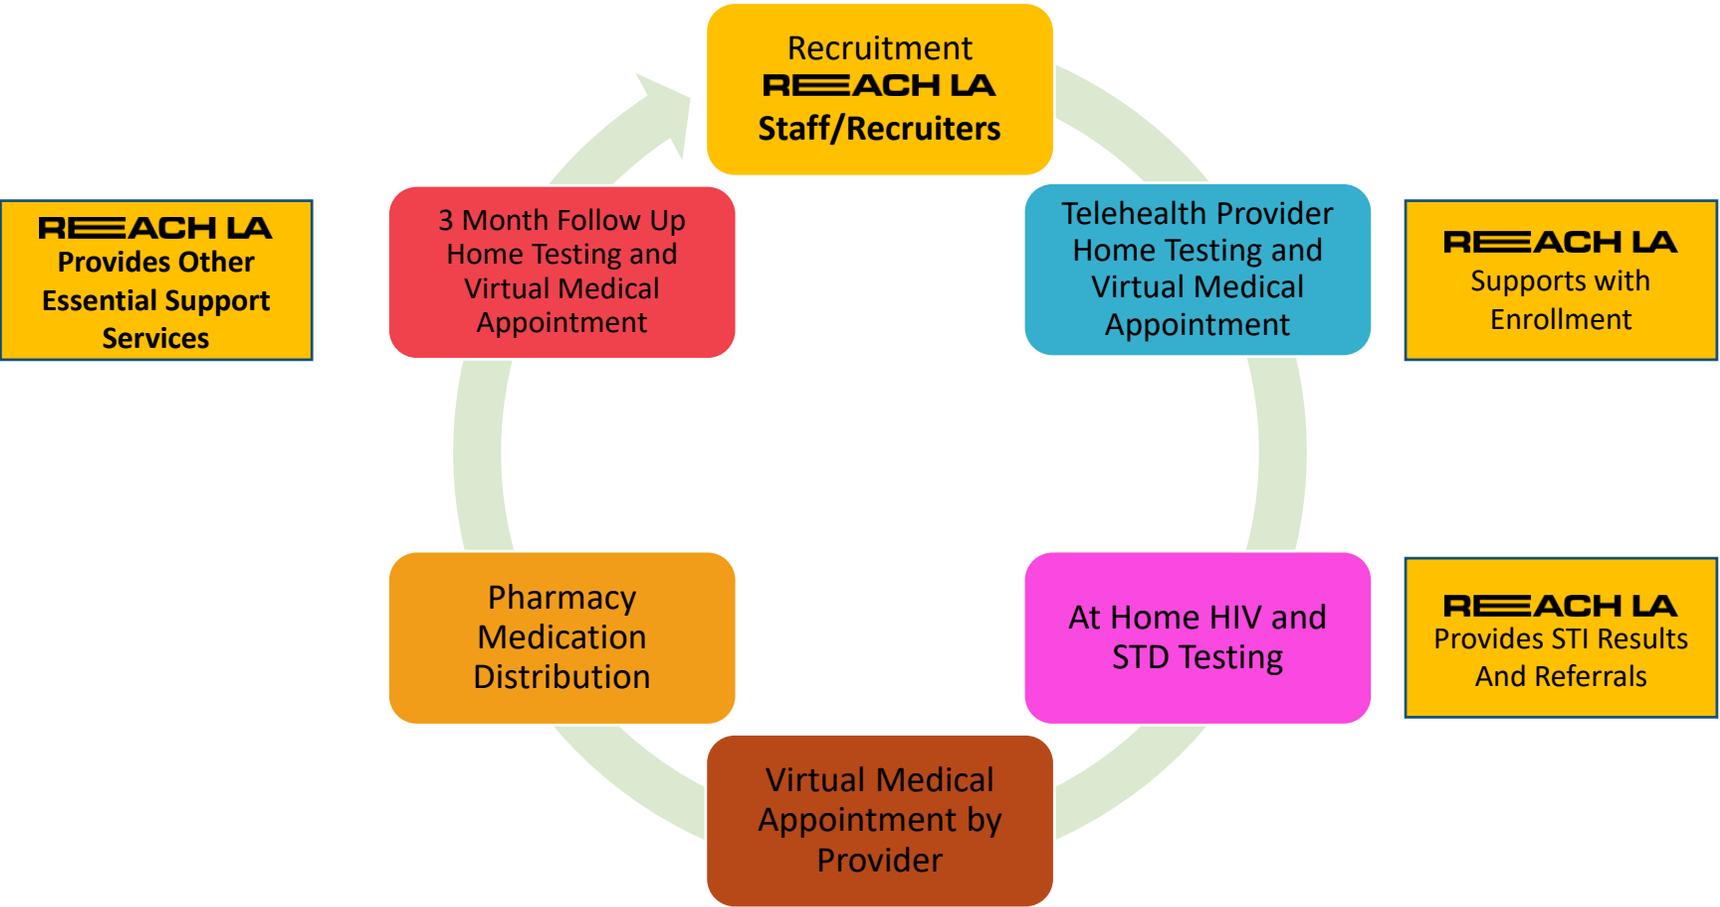

Barriers to Linking to PrEP

- Non-Clinical Community Based Organization
- Limited medical infrastructure (Protocols, EHR, etc.)
- Low uptake of PrEP among priority populations

How can a CBO provide PrEP services?

- Partner with a provider that provides
 - Uses video PrEP appointments
- Contract with an at home Testing Laboratory
 - Provides HIV, STI and Kidney Function Screening
- Partner with a pharmacy that can mail prescriptions

Telehealth Process

Benefits to Telehealth PrEP Program

- Client satisfaction
- No in person services
- Reduces barriers to care
- Ability to track adherence
- Increases CBO capacity

REACH LA

Recruitment

Customer Service

Social Media
Marketing

Utilized Social Networks
Recruiting

PrEP
Navigation

REACH LA's Reach PrEP Prescribed 2020

SPA	# of enrolled PrEP In 2020
1	4
2	51
3	32
4	138
5	33
6	42
7	55
8	89
Surrounding Counties	162

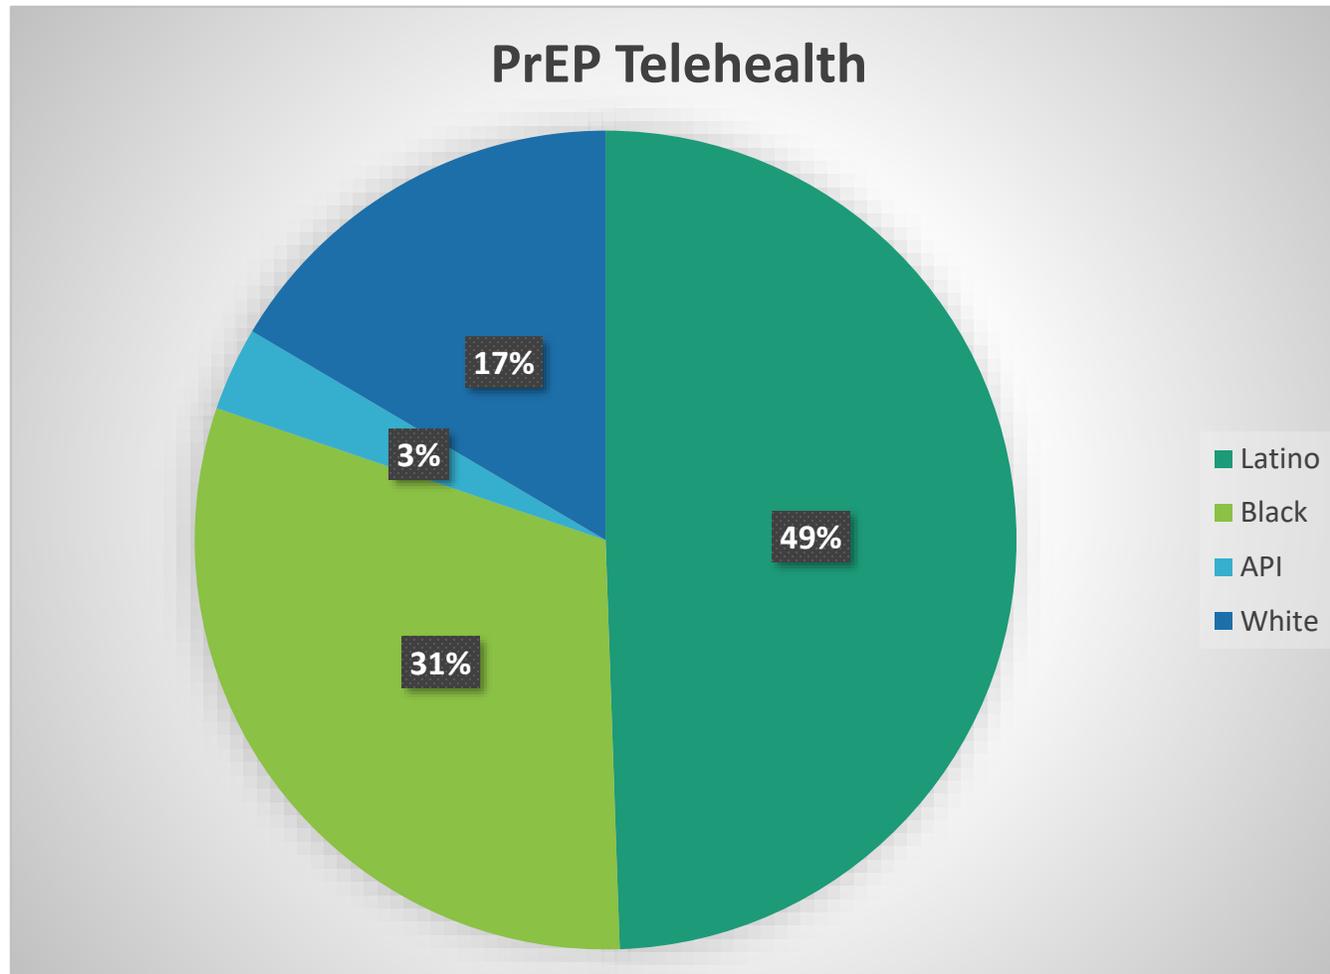

606 Enrolled into PrEP

REACH LA Telehealth 2020 Timeline

Chart Title

Recruited PrEP in 2020 by Race

Lessons Learned

- Develop strong partnerships with in-person PrEP Providers
- Establish a strong remote and internal linkage to care program
- Increase treatment referral network for nonlocal clients
- Invest in a E.H.R. program that works for you
- Request training for motivational interview and other rapport building skills
- Seek funding for inhouse STI Treatment

REACH LA

Miguel Bujanda
Executive Director
REACH LA

Miguel@reachla.org

